

Supplemental Health Benefits are often overlooked... At Mauser, we want to make sure you don't miss out on your benefits.

Mauser offers Supplemental Health Benefits which help protect your finances from certain covered incidents.

You can use these benefits to pay for out-of-pocket expenses and can be helpful if a covered incident causes loss of income due to being off from work. These benefits supplement both health insurance and disability coverage, plus, if you enroll in more than one, a single event could be covered by more than one plan.
